

Domaine de la Femme Allongée

Cuvée Camprigou | Languedoc, France

things of note

Mont Caroux in Saint-Chinian is nicknamed “La Femme Allongée” or “The Reclining Woman” because of its noticeable shape that can be seen from the Mediterranean Sea. Before becoming Domaine de la Femme Allongée, Bruno Gracia operated Domaine de Tabatau. Upon Bruno’s retirement, he sold the winery to his nephew Jean-Paul, he now runs the winery under its new name with his son Fabrice.

spec & tech

region: St. Chinian AOC, Languedoc, France

varietals: Syrah, Grenache, Carignan, Mourvedre, Cinsault

soils: clay-limestone farming: lutte raisonnée, hand-harvested, 10 ha vinification: destemmed, long maceration periods, blending of the free-run juice with the pressed juice, aged 10 months in tank, fined but no filtering, minimal sulphites

abv: 13%, cellar 5-8 years

tasty notes

This is a focused, complex, wine with a beautiful balance between fruit, spice, and acidity. In the mouth the Cuvée Camprigou is full of sweet red fruit with black pepper and garrigue spice notes. The nose is delicate and perfumed, with cherry, raspberry, and red licorice notes. In the mouth the wine is full of sweet red fruit with hints of black pepper and garrigue spice. The finish is soft with very silky ripe tannins.

any questions?

email me
caitlinferguson@gmail.com

bbi